

Examiner's Amendment forwarded with the Notice of Allowance mailed August 3, 1995. That is, "integral circuits" should be changed to -- integrated circuits --.

In addition, as required by the Notice of Draftsperson's Patent Drawing Review dated February 25, 1995, Figs. 1, 2, 6, 8 and 17 have been amended to comply with paragraph 9 of the Notice by deleting the dimensions included in the original figures. Also, Fig. 20 has been redrawn to meet the requirements of paragraph 12 of the Notice.

With regard to paragraph 10 of the Notice, Mr. Fon Lam of the Patent and Trademark Office Drawing Review Branch reviewed the drawings following a telephone conversation with the undersigned on October 20, 1995. He advised that he would waive this requirement because he agreed with the undersigned that the character of the lines, numbers and letters of Figs. 3-5, 8 and 15 are in compliance with the rules of the Patent Office.

This further amendment does not raise a new issue and could not have been made earlier than receipt of the Examiner's Amendment. Accordingly, it is requested that it be entered and the application passed to issue with Claims 1-58.

Respectfully submitted,
